Day 7: Oberammergau - Passion Play

Today you have reserved seating to witness one of the most poignant and moving stories ever told. The Passion Play depicts the tragic and moving chronicle of Christ's final passion. Local history stems from 1632 when Oberammergau was gripped by a deadly plague which killed almost half of the town's population. In a final, desperate act of faith, the village elders pledged that if the village was spared, it would reenact the passion of Christ every 10 years. Miraculously the village was spared and the villagers planned the very first Passion Play in 1634. Tradition dictates that the play's cast is drawn from all walks of life from within the village. The coveted role of Christ could be the village postman, butcher or school teacher. The cast spend almost two years painstakingly rehearsing every detail of the story for the performance of a lifetime.
